Family Employment Awareness Training (FEAT), PART 1 Building the Dream of Employment

In PART 1 of FEAT, Building the Dream of Employment, you will learn about (a) FEAT and state policy supporting employment of persons with disabilities; (b) different possibilities for employment and the success stories of Kansans with disabilities; (c) family/parent role in supporting employment; and (d) school and healthcare transition. This all-day training will include lecture, small-group activities, a youth/young adult break-out session on brainstorming your passion and job development, and an afternoon of rotating small groups with the following guests from your community: (a) employees with disabilities working in integrated and competitive environments, (b) employers and managers who support employees with disabilities, and (c) entrepreneurs with disabilities who own their own business.

Family Employment Awareness Training (FEAT), PART 2 Identifying and Accessing Kansas Employment Resources

In PART 2 of FEAT, Identifying and Accessing Kansas Employment Resources, you will learn about (a) on-the-job support resources for employees and employers; (b) federal and state funding, services, benefits, programs, and organizations related to employment; and (c) federal and state antidiscrimination laws. This all-day training will include lecture, small-group activities, a youth/young adult break-out session on self-advocacy and disability disclosure, and an afternoon of rotating small groups with guests from your community representing various (a) funding sources (e.g., cash assistance, grants, waivers, work incentives), (b) service programs and agencies (e.g., rehabilitation services, workforce centers), and (c) information organizations (e.g., business start-up, assistive technology).

All trainings from 9-4PM; on-site participant check-in from 9:00-9:30AM.

Lunch and snacks, training materials, and a resource CD will be provided to attendees.

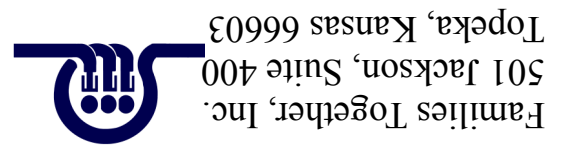

FEAT is provided free of charge; however, in order to reserve a spot, payment of $20 via check or credit card (online only) must be made to Families Together, Inc. upon completion of your registration. The registration fee will be returned to you upon attendance at the training.
